REUTER'S TELEGRAMS.

THE CORONATION.

IN LONDON STREETS.

[SERVICE TO THE "TELEGRAPH."]

London, June 23, 8.45 a.m.

During the Coronation festivities, there was a drizzle of rain which, however, did not interfere with the vast crowds who were viewing the illuminations in London.

There was an unprecedentedly small number of casualties. Eighty-eight cases of collapse were treated at the hospitals, these being mostly cases of fainting as a result of the nightlong vigil and lack of food.

The most serious cases were those of two ladies, each of whom had broken legs. A Canadian officer was thrown from his horse and sustained a fracture of the skull.

In the provinces it is reported that some fatalities occurred. One man was killed at Lyme Regis by the explosion of a gun and another was killed at Barnstaple through the collapse of an arch.

At Cowes and Carnarvon horses which were taking part in the procession bolted.

At Cambridge there was a fatal fall during the fixing of the decorations.

The Fleet at Spithead was on holiday yesterday. International sports were held.

At Portsmouth the Admiralty entertained to dinner one thousand foreign and five hundred British bluejackets.

SLEEPLESS LONDON.

[SERVICE TO THE "TELEGRAPH."]

London, June 23, 1.40 p.m.

During the Coronation procession London was sleepless. After the whole hearted rejoicings amidst amazingly beautiful illuminations, the crowds remained, lining the streets in view of the Royal procession to-day.

A lengthy circular was issued, stating that the procession would go by way of Trafalgar Square, St. Paul's, the Mansion House, London Bridge and then through the Borough, returning by way of Westminster Bridge, Whitehall, the Mall, and the Palace.

There was ample room for the great multitude of people assembled.

Each of the decorative schemes had a beauty of its own and seemed to be attempting to outvie its neighbours.

The troops who lined the route of procession made up the bravest show ever witnessed in London, all of them alive with bold colours in their separate groups.

Field Marshall Lord Kitchener inspected his sixty thousand troops and gave the final touches to the parades of the Colonial and Indian sections.

After returning to the Palace, whilst the bands were playing the National Anthem, Their Majesties King George and Queen Mary appeared on the balcony of the Palace and received what was perhaps the greatest ovation ever accorded to British Royalties.

The crowds were jubilant. The officers of the guard of honour drew their swords and cheered. The troops waved their helmets on their bayonets and cheered again and again.

Amidst the booming of the guns a slight rain fell, followed by sunshine. Their Majesties' procession left the Palace and en route were received with tumultuous and joyous greetings from their subjects.

The Colonial and Indian processions stretched out over one mile ahead. The composition of the Royal procession was made up of the most superb selection from the Navy and the Army. Every branch of the British service was represented.

The fourth procession headed by the Horse Guards, consisted of the Naval Battery, the Life Guards, the Royal Artillery and five bands. Then came the Indian orderlies and the King's aides de camp, among the party being Field Marshal Lord Roberts and General Sir John French, who were singled out by the spectators and heartily cheered.

Three carriages followed, bearing officers of state. The Lord Major was on horseback, attended by an Indian aide de camp, with Colonial and Indian escorts, and native sovereigns with escorts from the Horse Guards.

THE ROYAL CARRIAGE.

The coach of Their Majesties was drawn by eight cream-coloured horses. Lord Kitchener rode on the right-hand side of the carriage.

Despite the intermittent showers which broke in upon the sunshine, Their Majesties drove with the state landau open. The King wore a Field Marshal's uniform. The Queen was dressed in white and wore a large blue hat trimmed with ostrich feathers.

There was continuous cheering all along the route, culminating in a tremendous and sustained roar of jubilation as the King and Queen returned to the Palace.

LONDON ILLUMINATIONS.

The Coronation illuminations were repeated last night in London, but a steady downpour of rain reduced the crowds and tended to damp the holiday-making spirit.

The Coronation night's continuous roar, indicative of unrestrained enjoyment of the delighted multitudes, was markedly absent.

ON THE EMBANKMENT.

London, June 23, 10.50 p.m.

The procession, having assembled at the Embankment, proceeded to their position at the head of the Royal progress, proceeding thence, to the strains of the music of the Life Guards band, with the Colonial procession, under General Ian Hamilton, accompanied by the Colonial detachments and officers.

Afterwards came Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Prime Minister of Canada; Hon. Andrew Fisher, Premier of the Commonwealth, and Mrs.

REUTER'S TELEGRAMS.

Fisher, with a detachment of the New Zealand contingent; then came General Louis Botha, Premier of United South Africa, with a detachment of South African troops; Sir Edward Morris, Premier of Newfoundland, and Lady Morris; His Excellency Sir John Anderson, Straits Settlements, followed by Canadian contingent. Next came King Harman (Cyprus) followed by the South African detachment. Next in the line of procession was Mr. Egerton Sharpe, followed by the Canadians. Then came the Sultan of Perak, Federated Malay States, with the Rhodesians in the rear, and the Sultan of Kedah, F.M.S., followed by the Protectorate troops.

The Indian procession came in next succession, with mounted Indian officers, followed by six carriages containing Maharajahs and Rajahs of the Indian Empire.

The band of the Hussars played lively music as the procession passed.

"HERO OF THE HOUR."

General Louis Botha, the Premier of United South Africa, was the hero of the hour. He was enthusiastically applauded by the crowds who lined the route and especially by the occupants of the Colonial clubs and stands, who hailed him with the shouting of good greetings.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier, of Canada, and Sir Joseph Ward of New Zealand also got a warm reception.

The South African, New Zealand and Canadian troops were cheered in a right rousing way as they passed along the route, and the Indian Princes were particularly attractive to the public.

FLEET AT SPITHEAD.

[SERVICE TO THE "TELEGRAPH."]

London, June 23, 1.40 p.m.

Owing to the rain the illumination of the Fleet at Spithead fixed for yesterday evening was postponed until to-day.

AMERICAN RECIPROCITY.

CLOUDS IN THE AIR.

[SERVICE TO THE "TELEGRAPH."]

London, June 23, 8.45 p.m.

From Washington it is reported that the United States Senate Finance Committee has agreed to report adversely upon the wool tariff revision and the free list bills.

This decision impairs the prospects of the passing of the reciprocity agreement between the United States and Canada.

REUTER'S TELEGRAMS.

TROUBLE IN ARABIA.

SCENES OF BLOODSHED.

[SERVICE TO THE "TELEGRAPH."]

London, June 23, 11.25 p.m.

From Hodeidah (a seaport in Yemen in Arabia) it is reported that rebel troops in great strength have surprised the Turkish vanguard of four battalions and four guns, encamped three miles outside of Geozan, killing one thousand and wounding five hundred. The fighting was mostly of a hand to hand character.

After the encounter, the remainder of the Turkish force fled in disorder towards Geozan, the Arabs pursuing.

At Geozan the Turkish troops, in general confusion, were shelled by their own gunboat Entebbe, in the course of which several hundreds were killed and wounded.

THE FRENCH ARMY.

AS A DEFENSIVE FORCE.

[SERVICE TO THE "TELEGRAPH."]

London, June 24, 7.10 p.m.

From Paris it is reported that in the army debate in the Senate, Mons. Guirum, the Minister for War, stated that at present no Generalissimo is preferred.

There were, he said, several chiefs in the field, each of whom was acting freely in the district assigned to him, the chief in command remaining, so far as his actions were concerned, in the hands of the Cabinet, who absolutely refused to place the destinies of the country in the hands of a single man. That system had led to disasters in 1814 and in 1815. After an interpellation on the subject, the Chamber, by a vote of 238 to 224, defeated the resolution thereupon, whereupon the Government and the Cabinet resigned.

THE SEAMEN'S STRIKE.

CONCILIATORY METHODS.

[SERVICE TO THE "TELEGRAPH."]

London, June 23, 1.40 p.m.

The seamen on strike have accepted the increase of ten shillings monthly offered by the Union Castle Line, which offer had been rejected on Monday.

A similar settlement as regards English steamers trading to Belgium is expected.

In the matter of the strike the Belgians are following suit.

Our Crowned King.

Like his revered father, he has come to the full dignity of his Royal estate at the time when the great nation of which he is the crowned head is at peace with the whole world. King Edward's entire reign was one untainted with the horrors and brutalities of war. He spent the whole of his life as King in extending peace and concord among the nations. And his son, our beloved Sovereign, reaps the inheritance.
How much nearer he is to the ideal for which King Edward strove we of the present year of grace know full well. That he will carry on the good work which won for his father the title of Peacemaker, perhaps even to full fruition, we have great hopes.
He has indeed been crowned at an auspicious time. Nowhere throughout his wide dominions have the loyal rejoicings of his subjects been more thorough and sincere than here in the Crown Colony of Hongkong. The united prayer of the Colony is that His Majesty may have a long, prosperous and peaceful reign.

Daily Press.

Japanese Nervousness.

It is perhaps hardly surprising, in a country where public utilitanes have to be of the most colourless and circumspect nature, to escape the notice of the authorities, to find that when the bonds of bureaucracy are broken they are torn asunder in a way more vigorous than polite. Even in England Dr. Okamura's remarks about the Ministers of Home Affairs and Education would be considered "unparliamentary";
in Japan, where the language of epithet and denunciation is cast in gentler mould, they amount to a gross insult.
The long-exercised repression, in fact, tends to result, when matters get to extremes, in an astonishing ebullition. This is more peculiarly characteristic of the Japanese race. Long years of training have taught them to conceal their feelings, whether of grief, pleasure or anger; but when the pressure grows unbearable the resulting explosion acquires all the more force from the long suppression the natural feelings have undergone. There are observers who see in this the germs of future trouble in Japan, if a policy, which, however well mount, can only be considered as military despotism, is pushed to any further extremes.

South China Morning Post.

Bravo, Hongkong!

In no part of the King's vast dominions, outside of London itself, has Coronation Day been more loyally observed than in Hongkong. Despite the depressing and retarding influences of preceding days, the Colony has risen most admirably to the occasion, and honoured the historic event in a manner exceeding the most sanguine anticipations.
Thanks are due to the Coronation Committee for the admirable orrangements made; but the cosmopolitan community, where all nationalities combine in harmonious acknowledgment of the prosperity, peace and contentment which prevail under the British flag, has never been known to lag in loyalty on such occasions. It is therefore due to the enthusiasm and hearty co-operation of the community as a body that the celebrations have been so conspicuously successful.

Mr. R. R. Buckley - Great men, of a nation's life.

THE CATHAY TRUST, LIMITED.

The annual meeting of the shareholders of the Cathay Trust, Ltd. was held in the office of Messrs. J. A. Wattie and Co., Ltd., Shanghai, on the 19th inst. Mr. J. A. Wattie presided, and was supported by Father Castillejo, Messrs. H. A. J. Macrae, and J. H. McMichael, directors, J. C. Dyer, manager, and D. McNeill, legal adviser.

The Chairman said he did not think that the result of the first year's working could be considered otherwise than satisfactory, though they must not disguise from themselves that the profits shown, namely Tls. 839,703.76, were exceptional, and he thought they would therefore approve of the proposal to appropriate that amount as follows:—To pay Directors' fees Tls. 1,500, to write off preliminary expenses Tls. 6,022.83, to pay a dividend on the preference shares of six per cent. Tls. 135,000, to pay a dividend of ten per cent. on ordinary shares plus a bonus of fifty per cent. Tls. 150,000, to place to equalization of dividend Tls. 100,000, and to carry forward to next year the balance of Tls. 140,180.93. The difference in the rate of exchange at which the capital was subscribed and what it appeared in their book amounted to Tls. 517,241.40, and this had been credited to reserve. Their loans amounted to Tls. 4,318,442.25 their cash at the end of the financial year stood at Tls. 148,875.22, and their investments at Tls. 155,700, so they would see that their funds were fully employed. The arrangements made at the extraordinary meeting in connexion with their advance to the Stock Exchange had been completed immediately after the meeting and the necessary securities handed over to the Company. In conclusion the Chairman expressed the hope that as time passed and the position of the Shanghai rubber companies became more clearly defined there would be a return of confidence, the lack of which was undoubtedly responsible to a great extent for the present depressed state of the market. When that time came, helped by the strong recuperative powers which Shanghai had been proved to possess, they would hope for better times in which their company would endeavour to share.

No questions were asked, and on the motion of the Chairman, seconded by Mr. Macrae, the reports and accounts were approved.

On the motion of the Chairman, seconded by Mr. McMichael, it was decided to declare a dividend as stated in the Chairman's speech.

Mr. J. Valentine moved and Captain Valentini seconded that the remuneration of the Directors be fixed at Tls. 1,000 each per annum, and this was carried.

In moving that Mr. W. A. C. Platt be elected a Director in place of Rev. Father Castillejo, Mr. Macrae explained that the latter was unable to carry on his duties as a Director owing to his frequent absence from Shanghai. This resolution was seconded by Mr. G. Dallas and agreed to unanimously.

On the motion of Capt. Scott, seconded by Rev. Father Garcon, Mr. J. A. Wattie was re-elected a Director for the ensuing year.

Mr. W. S. Davidson proposed that Messrs. F. N. Matthews and G. H. and N. Thomson be re-elected auditors and that their remuneration be fixed at Tls. 1,500. Mr. J. Bell seconded and the motion was carried unanimously.

The Chairman announced that instead of being paid at the office of the company the holders of bearer scrip would receive their dividends at the Hongkong and Shanghai Bank on the following day, and at the same time the dividend warrants for the preference share would be mailed.

Extraordinary Meeting.
Following on the annual meeting an extraordinary meeting was held for the purpose of considering the following resolution:—

That the Articles of Association be altered by substituting the following article for Article 6 namely:—

"6.—The initial Capital shall be divided into 1,000,000 Preference Shares of 18/- each and 1,000,000 Ordinary shares of 2/- each. Such Preference shares shall confer the right to a fixed cumulative preferential dividend at the rate of 6 per cent. per annum on the Capital paid up thereon and shall rank as regards dividends and capital in priority to the Ordinary shares but shall not confer the right to any further participation in profits or assets. And upon any increase of Capital the Company shall be at liberty to issue any new shares with any preferential dividend or special rights, privileges or conditions attached thereto. Provided that nothing in this clause contained shall be deemed to prevent the payment of interim dividends on the Ordinary shares of the Company, but before any such interim dividend is paid on the Ordinary shares the holders of Preference shares shall be entitled to be paid the arrears (if any) of dividends due to them and also to be paid an interim dividend proportionate to the period elapsed of the then current year."

"The rights hereby attached to the Preference shares may be altered by special resolution, passed with the approval in writing of the holders of three-quarters of the issued shares of such class."

At the request of the Chairman, Mr. D. McNeill explained the reasons for the proposed alteration. By the present articles the Directors had a general power to pay interim dividends, but the question had sometimes come up at home, raised by the preference shareholders, as to whether a company, which was bound to give them in preference to everybody else, was entitled in some sort of way to prevent itself making the payment of the preference dividends by paying a dividend on the ordinary shares. The new words which were to be inserted would make the rights of the preference shareholders perfectly secure, because if it was proposed to pay an interim dividend on the ordinary shares, all arrears of dividends due to preference shareholders would first be paid up, and the preference shareholders would receive an interim dividend on their shares.

The Chairman then moved that the alteration in the Articles of Association be adopted. This was seconded by Father Castillejo, and unanimously agreed to.

The disastrous collision between the two ferry boats which took place on Thursday has caused much comment in the City. The origin of the disaster still wants elucidation, a matter of extreme difficulty. An inquiry into the affair must be held and perhaps the public may learn that launches in the harbour carry too many passengers. Interviews and personal experiences have proved to us that risky practices are carried on. It is well known that passengers on some launches congregate in front of the Coxswain whose view is thereby obscured. In the interests of public safety this ought not to be allowed, and an infringement of any law passed prohibiting such, ought to receive severe punishment. Hongkong harbour is always full of traffic, and it requires the Coxswain's eye always to be on the alert. Especially does this apply when boats are sailing at night.

FOREIGN NEWS ITEMS.

Germany.

It is semi-officially confirmed at Berlin that the United States has informed Germany of its willingness to conclude an arbitration treaty, similar to the proposed treaties with Great Britain and France. The German Government, it is added, has received the American declaration with sympathetic interest.

When the American proposals had been communicated to him, the Emperor William directed that a reply be sent to the Washington Government through the German Embassy, but the nature of his message is not stated.

France.

It is a curious circumstance that, although the Paris streets have been deprived of their customary motor car traffic, the number of persons injured by motor vehicles is fully up to the average. Several persons have been run over by private cars, one gentleman being killed in the Rue Royale.

According to an official statement, the companies affected and the number of men on strike last night were:—The Francoise Company, 2,500; Compagnie Generale, 1,500; Compagnie des Automobiles, 900; and some 500 to 800 drivers who ply for hire on their own account, making a total of 5,500 to 5,800 strikers.

Austria.

Six hundred members of the Master Tailors' Union, employing over 6,000 men, have declared a lock-out on account of what they consider to be an absolutely unjustifiable strike among the men of one firm.

The Congo.

The "Patriote" (Brussels) states that the British Government has brought to the notice of the Belgian Government in a friendly manner complaints made by Baptist missionaries with regard to the refusal with which an application for land in the Congo has been met.

The Yemen.

The Ottoman gunboat "It-tahiyah," which had been chasing two dhows in the Red Sea supposed to be running arms, had two seamen wounded in a boat while attempting to land a party. The gunboat then sank both dhows and bombarded the town of Khoka, the base of the illicit traffic in arms and contraband trade in the Red Sea.

China.

The "Hutch" (St. Petersburg) states that the revolutionary movement in Southern China is growing daily more serious. In several places the revolutionists have attacked the regular troops with success, and the soldiers have afterwards joined the rebels. A number of arsenals have been raided, the arms and ammunition being subsequently distributed among the revolutionists.

So far, says the "Hutch," foreigners have not been molested, as the movement is directed purely against the present dynasty. A proclamation has now been extensively circulated declaring Chanshi a republic, and urging war against Russia. It is generally believed that these reports are exaggerated.

Serbia.

No decision has yet been taken with regard to the visit to Paris of the King of Serbia. It is reported that King Peter intends to be present at the funeral of M. Bertheux on Friday in his capacity of a former officer in the French Army, but his official visit, as King of Serbia, will probably not take place until after his visit to Italy. It is considered certain that he will not return to Belgrade without being received at Paris.

MORTGAGE AND TRUST CO.

The second annual general meeting of the Straits Mortgage and Trust Company, Limited, was held last month at Edinburgh. Mr. J. Maxtone Graham presided.

The Chairman said: Gentlemen, the accounts before you require, I think, little explanation. Our capital account at the beginning of the year amounted to £53,000, and this has now been increased to £100,000 by calls payable during the year. You will see that our reserve fund has been increased by a sum of £7,500, bringing it up to the satisfactory total of £10,500, and the shareholders may be congratulated in possessing a balance sheet, after only two years' working, which has no item on the assets side of preliminary expenses, and whose reserve fund amounts to 10 per cent. of its capital. In regard to our investments, these are entered at a sum considerably below their market value, and it is a satisfaction to know that the directors have no anxiety as to any single investment realising at least the sum at which it stands in our books. I think you will admit that the company has been economically managed in the past year, the entire cost being £580. This sum does not include any directors' fees, as you will recall, the board decided not to ask for any remuneration for the first year of the company. At the last general meeting the chairman told you that a portion of the company's capital would be invested in securities outside the rubber market, and we have carried out this policy during the past year. We are still prepared to consider investments in the form of well-secured first charges on rubber properties, and in view of the expenditure on development of many estates proving more costly than was anticipated it is quite possible that we may have secured possibilities of working on the same favourable terms as we have done in the past. We intend, however, so far as practicable, to widen the scope of our investments, so as not to be too dependent on our industry or class of investment.

Rubber Investments.

In regard to our existing investments in rubber company debentures, you will recollect that these take the form of first mortgage debentures convertible into shares, and it is satisfactory to note that the time is now rapidly approaching when it will pay the company well to convert into shares, in order to obtain the substantial dividends which should be paid on these shares at an early date. Of course, you realise that the price of the raw commodity enters largely into the question, but there would have to be a very exceptional depression before the value of your shares would be the least endangered. With any reasonable prosperity in the rubber plantation industry we should obtain substantial profits. Your directors have in view the desirability of placing the company on a cash basis—this is to say, of eliminating from the balance-sheet the item "interest accrued" on the assets side. As soon as we are in a position to do this, and now that we are giving interest on our reserve fund, we hope to be able to recommend payment of regular interim dividends, probably next year. It will see that we recommend payment of a dividend for the 1st year at the rate of 4-1/2 per cent. This means in reality a return to the shareholders of 4-1/2 per cent. in respect of, as I mentioned before, we have the use of 50 per cent. of the capital for only a portion of the year. It is moved the adoption of the report and accounts, which was agreed to, together with the declaration of the dividend of 4-1/2 per cent.

The voting voted the sum of £300 to the directors as remuneration for their services during the past year.

Messrs. J. Maxtone Graham and Lieut. A. C. Baillie were re-elected directors; the auditors, Messrs. William Horne, Cook and Co., were re-appointed, and the meeting thereupon terminated.

A SHORT SERMON.

The Little Coat.

Moreover his mother made him a little coat, and brought it to him from year to year.—1, Samuel, ii, 19.

It was the mother of Samuel who did this a long time ago.

Each year when she went up with her husband to offer the sacrifice she carried to her boy a little coat she herself had made for him.

And the record of this is in the book of God, just as a like record is in the book of nearly every life.

For through all the years and through all the world, the mothers are making little coats for their children.

The first of these little coats is the greatest. It is the wonderful little coat of a wonderful new love,—the love of a woman for a child which is hers alone. It is woven of smiles and strange new colours the like of which do not live even in the flowers or in the rainbow. It is sewn together with the pure gold thread of every high and good hope—and golded away in prayers to await the coming of its wearer.

Then, from year to year, the patient hands of love are busy with new coats,—always sewn with the pure gold thread of high and good hopes and always folded in prayers as given to the wearer. And through the years, no matter how tall the children grow, the mothers make little coats for them,—for to the mothers the children are always children, just as with God the Father we are all children.

The little coat of loving care, of patient service, of uncomplaining watchfulness and constant guidance.

The little coat of the first lesson in the things of this life and of the kindly warning and of the words of love.

Comes the day when the children have grown up, though they are never grown up in mother's eyes, and when they go out into the world's different ways. Time and labour and distance separate the mothers from the children, yet every year and all through the little coats are still being made and sent along, even to the ends of the earth.

Comes the day when one of the children lies down to sleep the Sleep, and for the long journey that must be made alone is ready a little coat of love that will not wear out, no matter how many the years that may pass before the meeting.

And this is the greatest of all the blessings of life here,—that to most of the children come little coats year after year. Change and circumstance may alter viewpoints and feelings, but the mother's gift of love brings each one back to the dear, sweet days and things of childhood.

In the smoke and din of the strife that holds away by day and in the sufferings of the silent nights, when the spirit weakens under the strain and the body falters at its burden, God gives strength and guidance through the hands that fashion the little coats.

Those wonderful garments which cannot be had for any price save as love brings them into being! Those garments which make their wearers proof against the spears and shot of Time and are at the last raiment fit for the realms of Timelessness where the Father of all men rejoices to see His children coming thus clad in the richest and most precious of all garb,—the little coat of a mother's love.

HONGKONG, SATURDAY, JUNE 24, 1911.

ARCANA IMPERII.

Whatever may be the feeling at Home with regard to the Imperial Conference, which has just brought its session to a close, we must confess to a sentiment of dissatisfaction, when we review what has been done by an assembly, from whom so much was expected. Yet, the results seem, comparatively speaking, nil. Subjects, important subjects, have been discussed at great length, and no resolution or decision has been come to. Mr. Asquith in his speech, which was, after all, in the nature of an apology, attempts to excuse this, on the grounds that though nothing definite was the outcome, yet the discussions had cleared the ground and given each a better idea of the other's requirements. Such phrases may be well in an extensive peroration, but as a glorification of the proceedings of the Conference they are but shallow excuses. We take it, the Colonial representatives went to London with a clear idea of what they wanted; we take it, that the British Government met them knowing exactly how far they were prepared to accede to their demands; then why indulge in useless verbiage to palliate the fact that some matters have been discussed in the abstract rather than in the concrete? Why? It would even seem from the words of the Prime Minister that the conference was a school for premiers, where they could obtain those contributory elements of experience and knowledge, which would better fit them for the performance of their various tasks than if they had not been there. What is this but a mere sop thrown to the hungry colonies?

With regard to the foreign policy of the Empire, for the first time in history colonial delegates have been taken into the complete confidence of the Imperial Government. The Arcana Imperii have been laid bare by Sir Edward Grey, when the conference went into committee on the question of imperial defence. These, and kindred matters, are not public. It is as well they were not, and the decisions that have been arrived at have necessarily been thrown into the same gloom and obscurity, by the imperative need for absolute secrecy. We can only hope that the right policy has been adopted through the resolution asking for the affirmation of the Declaration of London, would seem to dampen all hopes in that direction. After various Colonial bodies have passed resolutions condemning the declaration, after naval officers, people, who realize the possibilities of this international measure, have sent to Parliament petitions pointing out its dangers, and after chambers of commerce throughout the Empire have signified their disapproval, the colonial delegates have thrown discretion to the four winds of heaven, and recorded a vote in favour of a measure that is viewed with keen disapprobation, by experts in naval and commercial circles. It would be idle to amuse at length on the proposals of the Declaration of London; it would be equally futile to indulge in speculations as to the why and wherefore of this astonishing action, and the only chance of relief is that they have seen some virtue where none was previously found to exist.

Passing from this to other questions, a ray of gladsome light seems to have sprung through the dark clouds of unfortunate decision. Though they have made, we submit, in our opinion "an faux pas" as regards the foreign policy of the Empire in one direction, they have evolved a businesslike doctrine in another. That commercial treaties affecting overseas dominions should be so secured as to permit of their withdrawal, if and when any dominion desires, is a principle that has already gone too long unrecognised, and it is pleasing to note that a little water has been found in a thirsty land.

The conference has passed. Four more years must elapse before the August assembly sits round the board at the Foreign Office, four years full of possibility for good or evil. Meanwhile, we must sit by and watch a pernicious international agreement become law, must see our shipping placed at great disadvantage and console ourselves with the crumbs of comfort that at least the Arcana Imperii have been laid bare. The results have been disappointing. Much that we hoped for has gone, we have no wireless, we are excluded from the Empire chain of stations, and we may grumble, but our complaint, like the crying of a child in the desert, will pass unheeded, especially by those who have seen and appreciated the mysteries of Arcana Imperii.

DAY BY DAY.

"If all the year were playing holidays, To sport would be as tedious as to work."

Captain W. B. Anley, R.G.A., has had his leave extended from June 20 to July 31 inclusive.

At the Skating Rink this evening the Stanton-Cup boxing match takes place.

The R. L. M. S. Hardinge is due to arrive at Hongkong on Sunday and will leave on the following day.

We have received two excellent photographs of the King from Mr. T. Chee, the local agent of the Yost Typewriter Co., Ltd.

Leave of absence, on private affairs to the neighbouring countries, has been granted to Miss M. E. Brower, Staff Nurse, Q.A.I.M.S., from July 2 to August 2.

A silver casket and an address will be presented to Their Majesties the King and Queen by the Ceylon Tamils resident in Singapore at the Coronation.

The gusts of wind which were blowing all this afternoon resulted in the street urinals reaping quite a rich harvest of Chinese lanterns which were blown on to the roadway.

The Illuminations.

All the available steam launches were engaged last evening by pleasure-seekers in order to view the illuminations of the Colony from the harbour.

New Tram Cars.

The new low level tramcars, double deckers, made their usual run yesterday. The travelling public are taking a keen interest in this innovation of the Tram Company.

Easy Time for Police.

The police have had a fairly easy time during the Coronation festivities and last night only one theft was reported. A man stole a pair of shoes from a woman sitting in the crowd. The value was $15.

All Well.

The following message has been received from the Harbour Office:—The P. & O. s.s. Arcadia reports having passed on the 22nd instant off Dodd Island the s.s. Suttonwood, which wished to be reported "all well."

Donations to Hospitals.

The Hon. Treasurer of the Alice Memorial and Affiliated Hospitals acknowledges with thanks the following donations to the funds of the Hospitals:—Coronation Daylight Decoration Committee, $30; W. H. Williams, Esq., $25.

The Netherlands Handelsbank. We are informed by the Nederlandsche Indische Handelsbank, that they are in receipt of telegraphic remittance from their Head Office at Amsterdam, stating that a dividend of 23 per cent. has been declared for the year ending 31st December 1910.

Macao Harbour Improvement. The powerful dredger Canton River of the Hongkong and Whampoa Dock Co. left for Macao early this morning. She has been chartered by Messrs. Macdonald & Co., the contractors, in connection with the Macao Harbour Improvement works.

Ship Illumination.

Prominent among the merchant steamers illuminations was the s.s. Pooksang, of the Indo-China S. N. Co. and great credit is due to Captain Mitchell and the officers for the effective way in which the vessel was illuminated, showing as it did the outline of hull, masts and funnel in red Chinese lanterns.

The First Printers in Manila. A Manila contemporary states that the first printers in the Philippines were a Dominican father and a Chinese assistant, and that the proposed celebration in honour of Pinpin is, therefore, rendering honour to the wrong man.

Heavy Rains in Tonkin.

Heavy rains in various parts of Tonkin have resulted in large tracts of land being flooded, fortunately without loss to life. The various rivers have risen considerably, and communication in several places has been suspended.

THE CORONATION.

THE SCENE LAST NIGHT.

A Pretty Setting.

Brilliant as were the illuminations in the City on Thursday, they were excelled last evening. Never in the history of the Colony has Hongkong been illuminated by so many lanterns. The view from the harbour was magnificent, and when in Hongkong one's eyes were turned upon distant Kowloon as a relief from the dazzling light.

Statue Square was beyond description beautiful. The sea-port, too, sent forth rays of light, which in brilliance was captivating. Nothing was lacking, and the new Post Office, the Government building nearest the harbour, presented an appearance well in keeping with the rest of the decorations.

Away at Shau Ki Wan, the scene viewed from that distance was not only beautiful, but acted on one's feelings as a candle acts on a moth. Its attraction was irresistible; it drew, and thousands walked to come in closer contact with the attraction.

Cars could not proceed, so great was the traffic, thousands of people filling the streets, and rickshaws could not be had for love or money. The scene in the harbour was much prettier than that of the previous evening and lights, white and red, were slung up to the mast head of all the craft in the harbour that could attain to waste.

The scene, in the beautiful setting of the hills, was one never to be forgotten and of such beauty that can never be adequately described and that can only be taken in the mind and recalled at pleasure. To those who love the beautiful such a scene can never be obliterated from memory.

The Upper Levels.

Contrasted with the brilliance and magnificence of the illuminations within the City limits, the efforts of the residents in the heights above the level of Barker Road were singularly weak. The crowning point of the Colony's splendid show might easily have been the Peak which most people were disappointed to find in comparative darkness last night.

The most silent feature in the upper levels was the Victoria Hospital. Standing as it does with its imposing facade as one solid, red elevation the Victoria Jubilee Memorial looked grand on its dark setting of green hills. The originality of the decorations of Mr. Donald Macdonald's house was particularly noticeable. The Saint George's Cross stood out prominently on a white ground made up of thousands of lanterns, covering the entire house front. It was grand and conspicuous from all points.

To the right of Glenelg Gully, the house of Condell Road made a fine showing. First and foremost appeared "Marble Hall," Sir Paul Clither's residence. Then the fine block of semi-detached houses in Mifton Gardens, beyond which Mr. Ho Kom Tong's block on its own grounds stood out conspicuously from the rest.

Lower down in Upper Robinson Road, the picturesque lawn of the Jewish Recreation Club was outlined with a three-sided row of red lanterns. The artistic building of the Synagogue with its Oriental minarets looked charmingly pretty. A line with both these Jewish institutions was the row of ten houses on Seymour Terrace. From east end occupied by Mr. L. Lopes to the west by Mr. Lambert there was not a hiatus, every window displaying its clump of lights. The only house in Ept Crescent to make an attempt at a show was "Bird Cage" just above it. Richmond House, Monfort and Rocklands were all gay, lighted colours, and the block of residential dwellings in Bellid Terrace made a gallant effort to fall in with the general scheme of illuminations. Mention must not be omitted of the Alo-Por-tuguese School in this connection, which also was well lighted. Stonehenge, the private house of the Nippon Yusen Kai and other Japanese commercial houses, was behind none in its illuminated decorations. At this point the wide expanse of St. Joseph's College building was distinctly into prominence. A cross and a crown surmounted the legend "God Save the King."

The northern porch of the Catholic Cathedral displayed a crown beneath which were the words "Rex Regina." The Mission House was also suitably illuminated. The Club-house of the Chinese Catholic Union exhibited a red banner with "Long Live their Majesties King George V. and Queen Mary" in white letters. The four houses in occupation of Messrs. Ho Fook, Chan Kai Ming, Sin Tak Fan and the family of the late Mr. Lau Chin Ting were uniformly lighted. Opposite them was "Fairview" which could be located from the harbour by its row of lanterns. St. Agnes College and the big block of the Italian Convent buildings presented a bold front. The twenty-two arches which the buildings comprise offered space for the suitable legend "Long Live the Crowned King" to be admirably displayed. In each one of the arches a single letter, thirteen feet high, was set in. The entire combination showed up with splendid effect when viewed from the harbour. Along Cause Road the whole terrace as far as Shelley Street, terminating with Mr. Augusto J. Gomes' residence, exhibited a double row of lanterns. The house belonging to the French Foreign Missions was picked out with red and white lanterns. At the top of the front elevation the British and French flags crossed each other. The C.M.S. girls' school contented itself with a simple decoration at the door front with a red lantern depending from the aperture of each window. Farther west Coronation Terrace also looked well.

Eastward of the Public Gardens the Military Hospital was perhaps the best. The buildings within this reservation being all the property of the Military Department were not overlooked in the general scheme of illuminations. St. Patrick's Club had a modest but appropriate display with the initials "G.M." in large letters.

A superb device was that on May Road which at 11 p.m. shone out brilliantly in letters 18 inches high in the words "God Save the King." All eyes centred on the bridge above Bowen Road at the close of the evening's illuminations. One and all regretted that it was lighted at so late an hour; its splendour was a brilliant tribute to the designer of the panel the place of honour in the conception of the brilliant idea.

"God Save the King."

It was the subject of general remark as well as regret that the very effective electric device: "God Save the King," erected on May Road over the tramway line, was not lighted until eleven p.m. It is a pity that for this reason a great number of persons were deprived of the opportunity of viewing what proved to be, when we were permitted to look upon it, the most effective "piece"—and there were many—of the entire display.

Military Tattoo.

Last night the men of the 1st Bn. K.O.Y.L.I. gave a tattoo on the Cricket Ground. The tattoo began with the "First Post" being sounded by the K.O.Y.L.I. buglers, followed by a march by the band of the Baluchians. The troops filed on to the ground, to the number of 192 men and about 500 native troops, who surrounded the ground. The men parading in the tattoo were formed in twelve sections of 16 each, and were provided with red, white and blue lanterns, the native troops being given green lanterns. The men first of all marched to the centre of the ground, came inwards, then turned up the centre, and formed two mazes. After other movements they turned about and the mazes unfolded. The men then came up to the centre and formed a wheel. The wheel revolved twice and each spoke turned about, likewise revolving twice. On the conclusion of this, the band of the Regiment, which had been playing the whole time, came to a stop, and the men marched into the lanterns and figures "G.R.V. 1911" were formed. Rockets were fired, and at the same time a feu de joie was fired.

Baluchi Dance.

Last night the 126th Baluchistan Infantry celebrated the Coronation of King George and Queen Mary at Kowloon. Their entertainment took the form of the Khattak dance, performed round a blazing pile of wood on a green adjacent to the native barracks. There were three different troops of dances and each in turn endeavoured to outdo their predecessors. The dance consisted of a series of gyrations, accompanied by loud yells, and the swinging of swords. The pipers and drummers also helped to swell the volume of sound.

After the dance, a member of the corps performed a native sword dance. He concluded his performance by whirling round at a lightful rate to the accompaniment of the cries of his regimental companions.

The Dragon Procession.

The dragon procession of last night was a complete success, even more so than that of the previous evening. At the early hour of six o'clock, the crowd began to assemble along the route, and soon grew as the hour for the start drew near. It was most certainly denser than that of the preceding day though it was quite orderly, and took more than a lively interest in all that was to be seen.

The procession started at a little after seven o'clock, rather sooner than was announced in the programme though this was a good fault for the length of the route kept the bearers out till very late in the night.

There was none of the straggling, that marked the parade of coronation day, and when once started the procession was complete from beginning to end, so that nobody missed any part by thinking it was all over, as on the first occasion, when quite half an hour passed between the two sections of the procession.

Of the quaintness of the various lanterns, their shapes and the beauty of their colouring, much has already been said, but in the opinion of many last night's parade surpassed that of the evening before in many ways. To begin with, it was sent out in better order headed by the different tableaux vivants which preceded six illuminated portraits of the celebrities of the day, including those of the King and Queen, the Prince of Wales, the rest of the royal family and of Sir Fred. and Lady Lugard all of which formed quite a distinctive feature, being brilliantly lighted up.

Then came the long array of fishes looking none the worse for their travels of the previous evening and the many weird birds and animals, all aglow with the soft light which only the Chinese seem to know how to produce.

This section shrouded in the dragon, a long sinuous creature with a fearsome head and a red and green illuminated body, which undulated, till it seemed to be endowed with life, making its way like a huge caterpillar over the heads of the assembled crowd. The route differed somewhat from the one followed on Thursday evening, and was rather longer, in fact the procession did not reach Cause Road till long after 11 p.m.

The Peak Children Entertained. The entertainment of the Peak children, at the Peak Club on Thursday afternoon, was an undoubted success. The high wind which blew during the morning served to dry the grass, so that the sports, which it was feared would have to be abandoned, took place after all. The central lawn was gaily decorated with flags, and in the ball room were tastefully arranged festoons of greenery and flowers, while, over the alcove at the end of the room, there appeared a semi-circle of green leaves with the words "God Save the King" framed upon it in red flowers.

A great feature of the entertainment consisted of a toboggan run on sturdily built bamboo erections designed by Mr. H. W. Bird. This was highly appreciated by the youngsters, who clamoured to take their turns, and appeared to thoroughly enjoy the rides. Four "Aunt Sillies" in a row (which we understand were made for, and kindly presented by, Mr. G. M. Young) contributed largely to the children's amusement, and were only outvalued by two sailors from H.M.S. "Tamar" in tubs nor by, whose heads were not assailed by the children with canyons, snuggles, which the sailors skillfully managed to dodge. At intervals the little ones were delighted by the performances of two Chinese jugglers. Ten was served to about 140 children in the reading room, and the room adjoining it; after partaking of which, and pulling numerous crackers, a move was made to the lawn, where the sports took place. At a little before 6 o'clock the children, their mothers, nurses, and others, all assembled in the ball-room to witness the feats of the well-known conjuror Ohing Lin Foo, who kindly gave his services free on this occasion. Prior to the performance (which it should be stated delighted the children beyond measure judging from their shrieks, laughter, and delight) Mr. Looker presented to the winners the prizes won at the sports, and then His Excellency the Governor's address was read to the children by the Chairman of the Club, Mr. C. D. Wilkinson; after which Mrs. Looker and other ladies assisted in presenting the Coronation medals to the children.

At the conclusion of the entertainment each child, on leaving, chose, and took away, a small present.

It is believed that the entertainment will long be remembered by the children present, and there can be no doubt that the idea, which we understand originated with Mr. Looker, was an exceedingly happy one. Great credit is due to him, and to the several ladies and the gentlemen who assisted in making the entertainment the success it undoubtedly was.

THE MACAO RAILWAY.

DEMAND FOR SHARES.

THE "TELEGRAPH" CORRESPONDENT Canton, June 23.

As already reported in your columns, the Ministry of Posts and Communications has given the right of building the Canton and Macao Railway to a syndicate. It is now reported that the promoter of the concern has been able to obtain financial aid from the Chinese at Peking.

There is an unceasing demand for the shares of the concern, and he (the promoter) is now on the way to Canton from the North. It is his desire to first construct the section from Canton to Heung Shan District, and to complete the line from Canton to Macao as soon as the Macao Delimitation Boundary question is settled.

The lower level tram cars stopped running soon after seven o'clock last evening between Arsenal and White Streets.

SPECIAL TELEGRAMS.

CHINESE AND RUSSIA.

["INDEPENDENT NEWS" AGENCY.]

Tokio, June 24.

The Amur Viceroy of Russia has issued a strict prohibition against the Chinese from landing in Russian dominions without certified passports from their consuls.

It was also announced that those who have now alleged admission from the authorities cannot live in Russian territories.

ENTERPRISE.

And still we forge ahead. The Hongkong Electric Company are seriously considering the introduction of the electric light to the higher hill districts. Many householders have already pledged themselves to support the venture to the extent of laying wires in their houses to connect with the electric cables which will be run direct from the Wandai works to Magazine Gap, from which point branch cables will be run in all directions; those may be connected from time to time with the houses of new customers as they present themselves. This evidence of enterprise by the Electric Co. will be appreciated by many householders resident at the Peak, and when it is realised what a boon it is to have both light and fans many will later be induced to install it. Those who desire further particulars and who think they might, if the conditions prove satisfactory, "take" the current, can obtain such information by application to the Company Manager, Mr. Graham. Such enquiries will serve to encourage this extension of the electric services as it will give the Company some idea as to the number of likely customers and aid the Board in coming to a decision on the matter.

GOVERNMENT GAZETTE.

It is notified that His Majesty the King, on the occasion of His Coronation, has been graciously pleased to appoint Sir Frederick John De la Roche, Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Colony of Hongkong and its Dependencies and Vice-Admiral of the fleet, to be a Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George; the Honourable Mr. Arthur Winbolt Brown, Registrar General, to be a Companion of the said Most Distinguished Order; and Mr. Rusbio Honorato D'Aquino, First Clerk in the Stamp Office, to be a Companion of the Imperial Service Order.

His Excellency the Governor has been pleased to appoint, under Section 10 of the Medical Registration Ordinance, 1884 (Ordinance No. 1 of 1884), Mr. Walter Leslie Paterson to be a Member of the Medical Board.

It is hereby notified that His Excellency the Governor has approved of the wearing, by the Officers of the Civil Service entitled by Colonial Regulations 165-170 to wear civil uniform, of the white undress uniform referred to in Regulation 170 upon all occasions between the end of February and the beginning of November when ordinary civil uniform would be worn.

The Late Mr E Hansen.

Mr. E. Hansen, of the Orient Rubber Estate, Johore, died in the General Hospital, Singapore, on the 14th inst., from the effects of malaria. He was taken ill on Sunday and brought to Singapore the next day. The funeral took place at Bidadi cemetery at 5 p.m. on the 15th. The flag of the Danish Consulate was flown at half-mast out of respect for the deceased.

BOXING.

THE BIG FIGHT.

Kenny v. Carlson.

The fight, long looked forward to by sporting devotees in Hongkong, and in fact in all the Orient, took place at the Stadium, Belle View, last evening. There was a fair attendance which included many of Carlson's supporters from Manila. Previous to the main event of the day three preliminaries were fought and of these the most interesting was that in which Iron Bux and Jackson faced each other.

Contestants in Good Condition. Carlson when he met Kenny before and lost attributed his defeat to lack of form. Before the contest yesterday he admitted he felt in the best of condition and expressed confidence of winning. Kenny, too, was in good trim, but with great caution, he refused to say anything as to the result. He said he always went into the ring to win and would do his best. More he could not do.

Heavy-weight Championship of Orient.

Great excitement prevailed when the contestants entered the ring. It was an open question who would win, and betting was not very noticeable. The fight was for a purse of 1,200 dollars, the winner to receive seventy-five per cent. of the amount and the loser the remaining twenty-five per cent. The two men were introduced to the spectators by Mr. A. Harper, the promoter. He described Carlson as the heavy-weight champion of Philippines, and Kenny as the middle weight champion of the Orient. The fight decided the heavy weight championship of the Orient.

Carlson in Favour.

Just before the fight commenced the referee was chosen by both parties. Mr. Server of San Francisco officiated. Speaking generally of the match one could not doubt who was the superior man after the sixth round had passed. The first five rounds were fought in clinches, one from front and hard hitting was at a minimum. Kenny tried hard to make the loop punch effective, but Carlson is a splendid coverer, and little was the utility of Kenny's fists. Certainly the first round, thought fairly even, rested slightly in favour of Carlson.

Kenny Aggressive.

The crowd became impatient when in the succeeding four rounds the pair continued to fight in the clinch, and demanded a more open fight. When least expecting the open fight to commence, Kenny, in the sixth round, burst away and with a right hand upper cut commenced hostilities which raised the crowd to a great pitch of enthusiasm. He rained in blows right and left, and nothing but Carlson's fine condition prevented him from finishing the boards. Carlson was certainly undergoing great punishment, and the sound of the gong was welcome to him at the close of the round.

Carlson Seeks the Clinch.

From this time onward the fight was Kenny's, save that on two or three occasions Carlson got in a blow with the left which made Kenny smart. Kenny resumed his forcing tactics in the seventh round, and in a manner peculiar to himself he held Carlson at arms length with the left, and made his right effective. Carlson in this round showed signs of distress, and sought the clinch as a means of relieving the stress. He owed a great deal to his ability to cover well, but in the eighth, ninth and tenth rounds he was soundly thrashed. Kenny, nevertheless, received a few blows on the ribs that counted. Carlson was forced to the boards in the ninth round from a straight right, and remained there, until the referee had counted nine. Then with renewed energy he faced his opponent and an hard open battle ensued.

Kenny Wins.

Round eleven saw the finish of the fight. Kenny had been urged on by his supporters to drop the clinch, and responding to their calls he opened an attack under which the strongest man must have gone down. Straight from the shoulder of both arms he hit; it was his only method of defeating his opponent, with an occasional right hand uppercut which he had used with effect in the sixth round. Forcing Carlson almost to the ropes nearly half way through the round, Kenny came along, and with the right upper cut gave his opponent the knock out blow. Carlson, urged by his supporters, made an effort to rise on the tenth second, but failed to do so and amidst great excitement Kenny was declared the winner.

Carlson no Match for Kenny.

With true sportsmanship Kenny assisted Carlson to his corner and then received the congratulations of the crowd. When Kenny's right glove was taken off, the back of his hand was painfully swollen and also the fore arm. He said he had hurt it in the fourth round and he had suffered great pain all through. He could not respond as he wished to the spectators' demands. If he had not sustained this injury the probability is that Carlson would have gone down before the sixth round. There is no getting away from the fact that Carlson, after the sixth round, was no match for Kenny.

Result Popular.

Carlson was attended to by his seconds, but half an hour after the fight was over he had not fully recovered. Kenny, on the other hand, save his injury, after a bath was quite fresh. He had not sustained a single mark on his face, and the only one on his body was given in the clinch by Carlson's "kidney punches." The result of the fight is popular.

Iron Bux v. Jackson.

The principal preliminary round was the fight between Iron Bux and Young Jackson, for a purse of 150 dollars. The fightall through the six rounds was close, but from the first was in favour of Iron Bux, who when coming to close quarters, hit hard on the ribs. He deservedly won on points.

Sailors in Opposition.

Sailor Savage (H.M.S. Monmouth) and Seaman Oram (H.M.S. Astraea), fought a four rounds contest and drew. Littlejohn of H.M.S. Tamar and Worthington of K.O.Y.L.I., also engaged in a four rounds bout, in which the soldier, though punished, showed a better conception of the art than did his opponent.

Kenny Interviewed.

Interviewed this morning, Kenny, looking little the worse for his fight beyond his bruised arm, informed our representative he had received an offer from Shanghai to box Dave Carney, a heavy weight who has seen much fighting in Australia. The date fixed is July 15th. He has also received an offer from an officer of the lunatickilling at Tientsin and another from Peking. He has not definitely made up his mind about acceptance. He may go to Shanghai. If he does not he will go to Australia.

Too Much Summer.

He has given up the intention of doing much fighting in the Orient. "Too much summer weather," he said, "is bad for me and I am 50 per cent. worse now than when I came to the Orient, and I want a touch of snow to get me right."

Yesterday's Fight.

As regards yesterday's fight Kenny feels he did not do himself justice, but one must take into consideration the state of his arm. "If," he added, "I had knocked Carlson out in the second round, people would have thought, as they have thought before, that I was not giving them value for money." There is a good deal of truth in the statement. Continuing, he admitted Carlson's strength and said he could not have knocked him out with a straight left.

McIlvain must Wait.

As regards McIlvain Kenny says he must wait his time now. "He has had four chances to fight and has got out of them all. He will have to wait until I come back from Australia."

JAPANESE TOURIST.

SPYING OUT THE LAND.

[THE "TELEGRAPH" CORRESPONDENT.]

Canton, June 23.

A certain Japanese Consul has applied to the Diplomatic Commissioner for a passport, as he intends to take a tour into Yunnan, and at the same time he asks the Diplomatic Commissioner to instruct the authorities of the places through which the Consul will pass to afford the foreign tourist proper protection, in accordance with treaty stipulations. The Diplomatic Commissioner has complied with the Consul's request, but reminds him not to go to any peace-disturbed district, until order is restored.

COMPANY MEETING.

The National Bank of China, Ltd.

The twentieth ordinary annual meeting of the National Bank of China, Ltd., was held at noon to-day in St. George's Building, Chater Road.

Mr. J. Scott Harston presided and among those present were: Messrs. Ellis Kadoorie, P. C. Potts, G. C. Moxon, A. R. Lowe, Lau Chu Pak, J. Gourgey, Young Pak Leung, E. D. Haskell, Liu Wing Chung, and Chan Ki-pan.

The notice convening the meeting having been read, The Chairman said:—Gentlemen,—The report and accounts for the year ending 31st of December, 1910, having now been in your hands for over three months, I will, with your permission, adopt the usual course and take them as read. As foreshadowed at the last annual meeting and subsequent extraordinary meetings, the liquidation of the Bank has now been decided upon, and the balance sheet before you shows that during the past year a considerable part of the amounts have been realised, and used to reduce the liabilities to note-holders and customers. It will be seen that at 31st of December, 1910, all the Bank owed to others than its own shareholders was about $300,000, and at the present moment this figure has been further reduced to less than half, and your directors will only be too glad if customers and note-holders will claim the amounts due to them. It is impossible to state exactly what return can be made to shareholders, but it seems likely to be in the neighbourhood of $80 per share, and the liquidators should be able to pay a considerable portion within a short time of his appointment. One of the resolutions which will be proposed at the extraordinary general meeting held immediately after this is to authorise the liquidator to pay out of the funds of the company a sum not exceeding $100,000 as compensation to the bank staff here and in London. Such a course your directors consider reasonable, having regard to lengthy service. I need hardly say your directors and managing directors do not come under the category of the staff, and of course do not claim anything from this fund. If there are any questions I shall be pleased to answer them.

There being no questions, the chairman moved the adoption of the report and accounts. Mr. P. C. Potts seconded and the motion was carried.

Mr. Lau Chu Pak proposed that the two retiring directors Messrs. J. Scott Harston and E. S. Kadoorie be re-elected. Mr. Ellis Kadoorie seconded and the proposition was adopted in a unanimous vote.

The question of compensation was explained to Mr. Loureiro and the Chairman moved that the award of Mr. Harston as arbitrator in respect of Mr. Loureiro's claim for compensation from the bank be and is hereby ratified and confirmed.

Mr. P. C. Potts seconded and the motion was carried.

This concluded the business of the meeting.

Extraordinary General Meeting. Immediately following the close of the annual meeting, an extraordinary general meeting was held, Mr. Scott Harston still occupying the chair.

The Chairman said:—In view of the remarks made by me at the meeting preceding this, I do not propose to say anything further on the matter. I have to propose the first resolution which has been read by Mr. Lowe, that the company be wound up voluntarily, and that Arthur Ryland Lowe, chartered accountant, of Thorne's Chambers, Fenchurch Street, London, E.C., and St. George's Building, Hongkong, be and he is hereby appointed liquidator for the purpose of such winding-up.

Mr. Moxon seconded. Carried. The Chairman:—I beg to propose the second resolution:—That the liquidator be authorised to pay out of the funds of the company a sum not exceeding $100,000 as compensation to members of the company's staff.

Mr. E. S. Kadoorie seconded. Carried.

The Chairman:—That concludes the business. Thank you for your attendance. There will be a further meeting of which notice will be duly given.

FREIGHTS.

Messrs. Lamko & Rogge in their freight circular dated Hongkong, 24th June, 1911, say that the period, since their last report was written on the 18th instant, has not produced any remarkable change in the freight market in most of its branches, the only exception being the continued strong demand for coal tonnage from Japan to this.

Saigon-Hongkong:—Chartering operations have suffered a check owing to scarcity and the high prices of grain in Saigon. Rate now stands at 11 cents with no demand for tonnage whatever.

Saigon-Philippines:—There have been some inquiries for next month loading, but they have not heard that any orders have been filled locally.

Bangkok-Hongkong:—Regular liners have lowered the rate from 28 cents to 25 cents per picul inside the bar.

Newchang-Canton:—A couple of fresh settlements are on record on basis of last rates paid.

Coal freights from Japan to this are firmer and more business would have been done but for want of tonnage. Latest fixtures are as follows:—

Moji to Hongkong: $2.10 per ton. Wakamatsu to Hongkong option Canton: $2.25-$3 per ton. Dally to Canton $3 per ton. Hongay to Hongkong $1.75 per ton. Port Courbet to Swatow $2.05 per ton.

Time-charter:—Charterers of s.s. Marie on the regular Saigon-Hongkong run have availed of the option of further 3 months on same terms, and s.s. Vestfold and Taintan have also been taken up on time-charter, terms are kept private.

Sales:—Some further boats are reported sold:—German s.s. also at $9,250, and British s.s. Monarch both to Russian buyers, s.s. Finne is said to have changed hands in the Philippines, and British s.s. Indrani and B. & S. S. S. Hingehow are sold to Japan.

Sail tonnage loading or to load: For Baltimore and New York British barque Radiant 1,840 tons net reg. September-October (Messrs. Siemssen & Company). British barque Eolipse 2,030 tons net reg. July-October (Messrs. Arnhold, Karberg & Coy.) British barque Arrow 3,000 tons net reg. October-December (Messrs. Arnhold, Karberg & Company).

RAILWAY TO AMOY.

SCHEME AFOOT.

[THE "TELEGRAPH" CORRESPONDENT.]

Canton, June 23.

The construction of a railway from Canton to Amoy has been generally talked about by the people for some time, and the right to build the same has been granted by the Ministry of Posts and Communications, to a syndicate. Work of surveying the route has temporarily been suspended pending the concessionaires obtaining sufficient working capital. The Ministry of Posts and Communications has now requested the Canton Viceroy to inquire whether the route of working the route for the Canton and Amoy Railway is being carried on progressively, when the concessionaires will be able to have the working capital fully subscribed, and when work on the line can be commenced, and to report the result of H.E.'s inquiry to the Ministry of Posts and Communications. It is reported that the Ministry will send a deputy down to inspect the line.

Cotton and Yarn.

Messrs. Polishwalla and Kotwall, Cotton and Yarn Brokers, in their weekly report, say that since their last report on the 10th inst. per S.S. "Delhi," the yarn market had ruled steady and a brisk demand had continued through at the interval, resulting in a fairly large business of about 7,500 bales of which No. 10 and 12 had the biggest share.

The reports of a firm tone of the cotton and yarn market from India, coupled with good inquiries from the consuming districts, have induced buyers to come forward freely and a healthier feeling prevailed during the latter part of the interval which has caused an advance of $1 to $2 in almost all counts, and the market closes with a firm and rising tendency.

LOG BOOK.

Tyne and Wear Districts Increased Tonnage.

The annual report for 1910 of the Tyne and Wear Districts Committee of the Federation of the Shipbuilding and Engineering Trades states that the returns of the shipbuilding industry show an increased tonnage over the past two years, namely, 1,322,886 tons, as compared with 1,150,000 in 1909 and 973,000 in 1908. There was also a marked increase locally, the North-East Coast yards producing 654,768 tons.

The Stranding of S.S. Hugo.

Advises were received here yesterday, say the "Nagasaki Press" of June 10, from the captain of the British s.s. Hugo, which stranded off Masuda, Kagoshima-ken, on Thursday morning at 3.30 a.m. stating that the vessel was full of water and in a critical position. The Mitsubishi Oama-maru left on June 9 for the scene of the wreck with Mr. A. O. Heron, Lloyd's Surveyor, and a representative of Messrs. Holmes Ringer and Co., Lloyd's Agents on board.

Collision off Amoy.

According to a message received by the Mitsui Bussan Kaisha the steamer Buyo-maru (2,924 tons), owned by the Nippon Yusen Kaisha and chartered to the South Manchuria Railway Company, has been in collision with a foreign vessel off Amoy. The "Kobe Herald" reports that the accident happened in a dense fog in the early morning of June 5. The vessel was running between Dahu and Hongkong with coal and when the accident occurred was on her way back to Dahu from Hongkong. The Buyo-maru was somewhat damaged and the repairs will take about a week.

Lost from the "Asia."

The steamer Pekin, which arrived at Shanghai last Saturday from Ningpo, brought about Tls. 1,000 worth of loot recovered from the Chinese pirates who ransacked the steamer Asia shortly after that vessel was wrecked on Finger Rock last month. The goods recovered consist chiefly of gunnysacks and a trilling amount of silk.

The crew of the Chinese gunboat Chao-wu secured the booty after a sharp engagement in which four of the pirates were killed. As soon as the Asia was abandoned the fishermen inhabiting the group of islands near the scene of the wreck, who swarmed around the vessel almost from the time she crashed into Finger Rock, boarded the ship and made off with cargo to the value of about Tls. 100,000 and the fire which gutted the craft shortly afterward was thought to have been started to obliterate all evidences of the theft. The ship and cargo was subsequently sold as she lay to Mr. Bushnell, from Foochow, who is said to have bought it for a Chinese syndicate.

The gunboat Chao-wu, which was stationed at Taishan, the largest island of the group, traced the small portion of the stolen cargo to one of the small islands near by, and proceeded after it on May 21. The gunboat was manned by 140 men in command of Admiral Shen. Upon landing, this force was attacked by about 2,000 of the fishermen on the island, who pelted the intruders with stones. One missile struck Admiral Shen on the shoulder, inflicting a painful wound, and then the force from the gunboat fired into the mob, killing four. At this the attacking party dispersed and Admiral Shen's men proceeded to where the loot was stored and conveyed it aboard the gunboat.

The Admiral notified the Government of the affair, and the authorities informed the American Consul, Mr. A. P. Wilder, who in turn communicated with the local offices of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company. Superintendent A. G. Hill and Commodore Foo China-see were immediately dispatched to Ningpo to arrange for bringing the goods here. The gunboat Chao-wu proceeded to Ningpo and transferred the recovered property to the steamer Pekin on Thursday morning.

Notice is given by the Department of Communications, Yokohama, that the Honmoku lighted buoy at the entrance to Yokohama Harbour, has been altered to a visible distance of nine nautical miles.
